

Compensation Committee Charter

(August 2022)

This Charter (Charter) sets out the purpose, composition, member qualification, roles and responsibilities, manner of reporting to the Board of Directors (the Board) of Reunion Neuroscience Inc. (Reunion), and the general objectives & operation of Reunion's compensation committee (the Committee).

Mandate of the Committee

The primary mandate of the Committee is oversight of Reunion's compensation of the directors and executive officers of Reunion with respect to compensation guidelines and the criteria by which bonuses and stock-based compensation awards are determined; compensation plans adopted by the Board and changes in the number of shares reserved for issuance thereunder; reporting and continuous disclosure related to compensation; Reunion's ethics program; and compliance with tax and securities laws.

Roles & Responsibilities

In executing its mandate, the Committee shall have the following roles and responsibilities:

Compensation Arrangements

The Committee will: (a) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding corporate goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the CEO, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives and make recommendations to the Board regarding the annual salary, bonus, stock-based compensation, and other benefits, direct and indirect, of the CEO; (b) review the operation of Reunion's executive compensation programs to determine whether they are properly coordinated and administered; (c) review management perquisites; (d) in conjunction with the audit committee as it relates to the finance department, oversee management succession planning and make appropriate recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment and succession of Reunion's executive officers; and (e) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding all employment, severance or change in control agreements with, and any special or supplemental benefits provided to, any executive officers or directors of Reunion, including the impact of any potential material transaction, such as a merger, acquisition, or spin-off, on Reunion's compensation plans.

Compensation Plans

The Committee will: (a) periodically review and advise the Board on current trends in regional and industry-wide compensation practices and how Reunion's compensation programs and practices compare to those of comparable companies in the industry; (b) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the terms and conditions, design, approval, implementation, administration and interpretation of Reunion's compensation plans, subject to final approval by the Board; (c) determine the eligibility requirements applicable to participants in Reunion's compensation plans; (c) evaluate the performance of each compensation plan, as required under applicable laws, rules or regulations.

Compensation Disclosure

The Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board regarding Reunion's Statement of Executive Compensation, including the compensation discussion and analysis and the related executive compensation information, to be included in Reunion's management information circular and any other disclosure with respect to executive compensation to be included in any other public disclosure documents of Reunion.

Ethics Program

The Committee will: (a) establish procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of Reunion of complaints regarding questionable actions by senior management of Reunion; (b) in conjunction with the audit committee, review incentive compensation arrangements in place to confirm they do not encourage inappropriate or unintended risk taking; and (c) review ethics policies and programs, and monitor their implementation.

Compliance with Laws

The Committee will: review regular reports from management and others (e.g., legal counsel) with respect to Reunion's compliance with laws and regulations relating to compensation including: (a) employment and other human resources related laws and regulations; (b) public disclosure requirements; (c) laws and regulations which expose directors to liability; and (d) orientation of new members and continuous education of all members. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee will oversee requirements related to loans to officers and directors of Reunion, share ownership guidelines for the executive officers of Reunion and insider trading oversight.

The Committee is also responsible for the other matters as set out in this Charter and/or such other matters as may be directed by the Board from time to time.

Composition

The Committee must be comprised of a minimum of three directors of Reunion. A majority of the members of the Committee must be independent directors of Reunion as defined in National Policy 58-201 Corporate - Governance Guidelines. For the purposes of determining the independence of the members of the Committee, (i) the fact that such member is also a nominee Board member of a shareholder of Reunion will not, in and of itself, render such director not independent and (ii) all factors specifically relevant to whether the director has a relationship with the company that is material to his or her ability to be independent from management in connection with compensation committee duties will be considered, including, but not limited to, (a) any compensation received by the director from any person or entity (including any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee paid by Reunion to such director) and (b) the director's affiliate relationships with Reunion, its subsidiaries or affiliates of Reunion's subsidiaries.

The Board will appoint a chair of the Committee (the Chair) to serve for a term of one (1) year on an annual basis. The Chair may serve as the chair of the Committee for any number of consecutive terms. The Chair shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including scheduling and chairing meetings, preparing agendas and briefing documents, and making regular reports to the Board. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees where appropriate.

The members of the Committee will be appointed by the Board annually, and from time to time to fill vacancies, as required. A Committee member may be removed or replaced at any time at the discretion of the Board and will cease to be a member of the Committee on ceasing to be an independent director. Each member of the Committee shall have skills and/or experience which are relevant to the mandate of the Committee.

Meetings & Minutes

The Committee shall meet as necessary, at a minimum at least four (4) times per year, to enable it to fulfill its responsibilities and duties as set forth herein.

The quorum required to constitute a meeting of the Committee is set at a majority of members. The Chair will set the agenda for each meeting. Agenda materials must be circulated to all Committee members prior to the meeting for members to have a reasonable amount of time to review.

The Committee may invite members of management or others to attend meetings and provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request on the issues being considered, provided that the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and other executives may not be present during any voting or deliberations on compensation of the CEO or such other executives.

Meetings may be called by the Chair or at the request of any member of the Committee or any member of the Board.

The Committee will keep minutes of its meetings which accurately recording the decisions reached by the Committee, and which minutes are filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

Reporting

The Committee will report, at least annually, to the Board regarding the Committee's examinations and recommendations.

Express Authority

The Committee shall have unrestricted access to Reunion's officers and employees. The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities and duties. In addition to all authority required to carry out the duties and responsibilities included in this Charter, the Committee has specific authority to: (a) engage, set and pay the compensation for independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities, and any such consultants or professional advisors so retained by the Committee will report directly to the Committee and the Committee will be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any such consultants or professional advisors; (b) communicate directly with management and any internal auditor, and with the Auditors without management involvement; and (c) incur ordinary administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties, which expenses will be paid for by Reunion.

In retaining consultants and advisors (other than in-house counsel and any advisor who consults only on broad-based plans or provides only non-customized information) the Committee shall consider all factors relevant to the advisor's independence from management or the Board, including: (a) what other services the employer of the consultant or advisor provides to Reunion; (b) the amount of fees the employer of the consultant or advisor receives from Reunion as a percentage of revenue for such employer; (c) the policies and procedures related to conflicts of interest of the employer of the consultant or advisor; (d) any business or personal relationships between the consultant or advisor and the members of the Committee; (e) any stock of Reunion owned by the consultant or advisor; and (f) any business or personal relationships between the consultant or advisor or the consultant or advisor's employer and an executive officer of Reunion.

Annual Review

The Committee shall review and assess the adequacy of this Charter periodically as conditions dictate, but at least annually, to ensure compliance with any rules or regulations and recommend any modifications to this Charter if and when appropriate to the Board for its approval.

The Board will conduct an annual performance evaluation of the Committee, taking into account the Charter, to determine the effectiveness of the Committee.

Approved as of August 11, 2022